

Daily Habit

2/13/22

We're here and now with
Everything under the sun
Godly we breathe
With that, the day has become

2/14/22:

Crash into earth
I may hurt but
I am bound to Confound

Awake
In the day
Faces shake
The earth quakes
Can you elaborate
Do not hesitate
A twist in fate
This will be the day
Rest and be okay

2/15/22:

Love can come in many forms
Friends, family, and porn
Physical and mental love vs lust
Just a plus that we are unjustly informed
Of what is and isn't objective love
Of what is a sensation undone by
The world we live in
Can love be temporary in the sense that
It's here and gone
But permanently in your memory

2/16

When you open your eyes
I wonder "What do you perceive"
Simple things I buy
Are they really what I need?

Questions when you're high
Unbelievably unique
How we live ours
Determines reality

2/17/22

Sound
It's how we communicate
Every pitch, every annunciation, every bark
Appreciate that your ears never turn off
Until they do
Permanently

2/18/22

Arrogance in time
Fueled by jealousy
How you feel inside
Connected to insanity
When you wake up blind
It's Only then you'll see
Because I've got half a mind
It's time for reductive therapy

2/19/22

Are you a hero?
I'm full of fear though
It's not the outside you should perceive,
People are scary
Don't be too wary
Because it's the unknown you fear the most

Senseless transgressions
With Endless corrections
In a world that's gone awry,
Those trapped trapped in their minds
Say goodbye, sincerely your beloved life

2/20/22

Life dependent on one, to feel and be young
I might stay, but I've thought about running away
To Oceans deep and valleys wide
No man's keep: The treasures of the sky
The pleasures too sweet, will I ever fly?

If I had a fleet, I'd send them all to die

2/21/22

It's like I'm walking down the avenue
Running down the road
A language stuck in revenue
Everything in code
I'm a psychopathic killing machine
Whose work will never show
Don't forget to breathe
You'll never know where you'll go
We were looking at the midnight stars
You Kissed me in dark
She said save her world
And I'll die trying
